NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR

Call for Nominations to the Board Canadian Cancer Society Newfoundland and Labrador (CCSNL) Division

The Canadian Cancer Society (CCS) is a national, community-based organization of volunteers whose mission is the eradication of cancer and the enhancement of the quality-of- life of people living with cancer. The Canadian Cancer Society achieves its mission through research, education, patient services, and advocacy for healthy public policy. These efforts are supported by volunteers and staff, and funds raised in communities across Canada.

The CCS NL Division requires three volunteers to serve on its Board of Directors for a three-year term. The Newfoundland and Labrador Division Board of Directors provides leadership to the Division by supporting the Mission of the Society, providing strategic direction, monitoring the quality of programs and services as well as stewarding Newfoundland and Labrador Division resources and ensuring accountability to the public. Terms for current vacancies on the Newfoundland and Labrador Division Board are for three years with the first board meeting following the Annual General Meeting which occurs in June.

Individuals from across the province are encouraged to apply for a position on the Board of Directors by submitting:

- A one-page Cover Letter stating your interest in the CCS, skills you have to offer, and any other information you would like to highlight about yourself. Any potential or real Conflict of Interest should be identified
- A two-page resume
- The names of two references and their contact information.

Submit the above cover letter and two-page resume including the names of references to:
